The new Coral Gables collection for women takes its name from the exclusive residential area of Miami, famous for its mediterranean Revival style architecture. This timepiece reminds us of the area's luminous elegance and charts a brand new course for Nautica Watches.

The subtle seduction of the lines becomes a play of references in the hands, the indexes and the finishing of the slim stainless steel case with ion plating. The mood is one of a lovely day under an unfurled sail, in the ocean blue of the dial with wave texture, in the rocker arm of the stylised seconds hand, and in the white saffiano leather strap too, with striped digital print.

The clean design makes Coral Gables an accessory to wear at any time of day. Simply chic.
