Pier 25 returns in grand style. Its large 48-millimeter case encloses a heart that will continue beating at depths of up to 200 meters. But there are more references to the nautical world. The dial is sophisticated and represents the synthesis of the style that has set Nautica apart since 1983. The iconic flags used as indexes look their very best against a contrasting background that creates a wave-like effect. The bezel stands out with the contrasting colour to signify the first quarter. The monochrome silicone strap with the wording Nautica is integrated for a look that is truly sporty. Pier 25 shares its name with the longest and most glamorous pier on the Hudson River in New York, confirming its status as a style icon for people who like to be noticed but don't want to surrender their freedom and desire of reaching new goals.
