Nautica Watches turns 25 and to celebrate unveils a limited-edition, Porthole 25th Anniversary collection.

Highly technical in its appearance and mechanics, the iconic case, with its easily recognizable porthole design, comes in gun metal-colored steel. But above all the timepiece boasts an open-worked automatic movement, that can be admired from both sides through the transparent dial and case back.

For the first time ever, the timepiece's indexes are adorned with the traditional colored flags which in the International Nautical Code spell out "Nautica Style".

A limited-edition item for collectors, with only 500 timepieces produced, Porthole 25th Anniversary is an unmistakable sign of style and watchmaking culture.
