The inspiration is the ocean, the look urban: the Porthole Slim's iconic porthole-shaped 44 mm case defines the dynamism of the young gentleman with a packed agenda.

The Porthole Slim marks time with the sportiness of an informal and wearable look for every occasion, from office to freetime. The skeletonised luminescent hour and minute hands, the style of the indexes, and the day/date window at 3 o'clock are reminiscent of the iconography of the sixties, a period that really made a difference for men's style.

The ocean blue dial lets you play with your inspiration and pairings, choosing between the strap and bracelet that come with the watch: classic leather in black or two shades of brown, plus a sportier steel bracelet.
